INDUSTRY ASSOCIATION

Red Bud Awards

May 7, 2019

---

Oklahoma City
Oklahoma History Center

Recognizing Oklahoma Tourism Attractions, Destination Marketing Organizations and Journalists for their outstanding efforts to serve and promote Oklahoma's tourism industry.

General Rules & Deadlines

Eligibility

The RedBud Awards are open to all Oklahoma tourism entities, and entries should represent tourism and/or travel opportunities in Oklahoma. Last year's Redbud winners are not eligible to enter in the same category they won at the RedBud Awards Program in May 2018. Merit Award winners may re-enter any category.

Contest Period and Deadlines

Entries must have been produced, published, broadcast or held between January 1, 2018, and December 31, 2018. Entries must be postmarked or hand-delivered to the Oklahoma Travel Industry Association by 5 p.m. March 1, 2019. Absolutely no extension will be made to this deadline due to judging schedules.

Entry Fees

Payment/purchase orders MUST accompany all entries. Checks should be made payable to OKLAHOMA TRAVEL INDUSTRY ASSOCIATION. Any entry submitted without payment or purchase order will be disqualified. Entry fees are $25 per category entered. Any payments made by credit card will be processed by The Oklahoma Restaurant Association.

Recognition of Winners

Winners will be announced during a special awards gala on May 7, 2019 at the Oklahoma History Center, 800 Nazih Zahdi Dr., Oklahoma City. Please contact OTIA at 405-942-1121 or register online at www.OTIA.info to make reservations for the awards banquet. Finalists will be notified a minimum of two weeks prior to the awards presentation. Winning entries will be recognized in the Oklahoma Travel Industry Association's monthly newsletter and website, and in a statewide press release. Entries will be displayed during the banquet and can be picked up at the conclusion of the evening. We will dispose of any entries not picked up the evening of the event.

Redbud Award Categories

Entries must have been produced, published, broadcast or held between 1/1/18 and 12/31/18

a. Outstanding Agritourism Attraction

Agritourism attractions that have made marked improvements in facility, have a strong entertainment and/ or educational value, marketing and public relations as well as contribute to the overall tourism industry. Lodging facilities with agri- tourism activities on-site will be considered for this award.

b. Best Social Media Campaign

Any use of social media and web 2.0 applications for marketing or promotional purposes, including social media such as Facebook, Twitter, FourSquare, Flickr and YouTube, bookmarking sites like Digg and Reddit, or any other applicable web 2.0 application. Entries are to be judged based on quality and effectiveness of message, best use of available resources, creativity, and overall outcome of social media campaign.

c. Tourism Organization of the Year

Entries will be evaluated on the overall performance of the destination marketing organization (i.e. Chamber of Commerce, CVB, multi-county organization). Entries should show demonstrable accomplishments through effective tourism marketing (advertising, promotions, public relations, etc.) with best strategic use of available budget. Nominations should show creativity in design, development and implementation of any projects cited. While nominations can include the history and growth of an organization, the emphasis must be on projects or programs developed or implemented during calendar year.

d. Best Brochure or Publication

Publications will be judged on use of graphics, creativity, copywriting, photography, layout, design, overall appearance, and quality and effectiveness of message. One award will be given for each of the following categories:

- tri-fold or single sheet brochure
- best booklet 10 pages or less
- best booklet 11 pages or more

Include budget allocated for each brochure/publication and distribution techniques of publications. Books are not eligible for entry.

e. Best Overall Marketing Campaign

Any combination of the following: print/broadcast advertising, marketing plans, fulfillment efforts, press releases, media relations, other promotional efforts. Creativity, campaign strategy and cohesiveness, effectiveness based on goals and results, media coverage, and use of budget will be evaluated. Please include marketing plan, budget, press clippings, video clips in DVD format or CDs/audiocassettes of media coverage if available.

f. Best Website

Websites that are user-friendly and effective, demonstrate creativity, provide visual appeal, are appropriate for target audiences, and achieve goals. Please include web address and sections to visit.

g. Best Partnership

Best use of a partnership or collaboration to significantly promote an area, attraction or event. Creativity in soliciting partnership and effective use of sponsorship dollars will be evaluated. Include an analysis of how partnership was solicited, how money was used, and what was accomplished through cooperative efforts that may not have been attainable for a single organization working alone.

h. Outstanding Attraction

Attractions that have made marked improvements in facility, have a strong entertainment and/or educational value, marketing and public relations as well as contribute to the overall tourism industry. Lodging facilities are not eligible for entry.

i. Outstanding New Attraction

Includes attractions that have been in existence for three years or less. Entertainment and/or educational value, marketing and public relations, and overall contribution to tourism industry are evaluated.

j. Outstanding Temporary Exhibit

Any exhibit displayed on a temporary basis (one year or less). Exhibit demonstrates creativity/uniqueness, effective marketing and/or public relations, and any enhancements made to exhibit since initial display.

k. Outstanding Event

Any festival, fair or celebration that presents a creative and unique activity, utilizes effective marketing and public relations strategy, and demonstrates any improvements or enhancements from previous years. Conferences are not eligible.

l. Outstanding New Event

Any festival, fair or celebration (in existence three years or less) that presents a creative and unique activity, utilizes effective marketing and public relations strategy, and demonstrates any improvements or enhancements from previous years. Conferences are not eligible for entry.

m. Outstanding Media Coverage

Any recently published feature story on travel and tourism opportunities in Oklahoma. One award may be given in each media category: radio, television, online and newspaper. Include one copy of published article/tear sheets, CD or DVD. Oklahoma travel articles appearing in publications/outlets outside the state are eligible.

n. Outstanding Lodging Property

Includes hotels, motels, beds and breakfasts, guest ranches, cabins and other lodging properties that go above and beyond in customer service, unique amenities, creative or niche marketing, and other positive contributions to Oklahoma's tourism industry.

Judging & Selection Criteria

Tourism professionals from across the region will judge the RedBud Award entries. Judges will use a total point rating process to establish winners. Awards for each category may include a RedBud Award and/or a Merit Award. However, if sufficient points are not accumulated by any entrant in a category, no awards may be given in that category. The decision of the judges is final.

As applicable, entries will be judged on their effective use of the funds budgeted for that project or campaign.

In the event of a tie, all winners with equal score totals will receive an award. Judges may award honorable mentions at their discretion. The Oklahoma Travel Industry Association will verify legitimacy of all entries prior to award presentation.

All Tourism Award categories (Outstanding Event, New Event, Attraction, New Attraction, Agritourism Attraction and Temporary Exhibit) will also be judged on customer service, attendance as compared to previous years, marketing (include plan and budget), media relations (include press releases, clippings, video clips, CDs, etc.), industry/ community relations, accessibility, variety of audiences reached, value for cost of admission, group tour relations (if applicable), and effective use of budgeted funds. Entries may be prepared in-house or by the organization's advertising agency, public relations firm or other vendor.

Entry Notebook Requirements

Each entry must be submitted separately and must be limited to one hardcover, stiff-spine, three ring clearview* binder no more than three inches thick. The binder should be free of lettering, labels, drawings, or other artwork. The front cover pocket of each entry should contain a completed entry form.

*Front panel, clear-view pockets are used in the judging process to hold identifying entry and judging forms.

T-shirts, videos, and folded posters may be placed and secured in plastic sleeves and included in the binder. Items too large to submit may be photographed and placed in the binder. Do not send any loose items.

Please keep entry summaries to two pages no larger than 8.5" by 11" with 1-inch margins all around, and font size no smaller than 12 pt. Please summarize your efforts when compiling entry information and examples.

If entering more than one category, provide materials and documentation for each separate entry.

All entries must meet the above requirements to be eligible for consideration.
